The Executive Board and the Program Committee are always looking for ways to stimulate and improve our organization. If you have comments and/or ideas about programs, tours, speakers or locations for our meetings, please write them on the back of this form. We will follow up on your suggestions and make all of the arrangements if you can give us leads.

The Society for Industrial Archeology encourages the study, interpretation, and preservation of historically significant industrial sites, structures, artifacts, and technology. All National SIA members receive IA, The Journal of the Society for Industrial Archeology, the Society for Industrial Archeology Newsletter and discounts in fees for annual meetings, fall tours, and occasional events. The SIA welcomes members with a wide range of professional and avocational interests in industrial archeology.
